Good morning

Dear God,

I know that I'm not perfect,
I know sometimes I forget to pray.
I know I have questioned my faith,
I know sometimes I lose my temper, but thank you for loving me unconditionally and giving me another day to start over again.

WHAT WE DON'T HAVE."

And live in Church

Now is the time of much change in our church as our Pastor takes early retirement due to her health. She will be missed by not only the church but many within the wider community. But this is now the time for us as a church family to draw closer to each other. We also need to pray for the future of Woodside and the decisions that have to be made to fill the role of Pastor.

Please pray for the church board as they meet on Monday with the District Superintendent as discussions will begin regarding a way forward for the Church and a new pastor

Please can I ask for prayers for Darcey , she is having her repeat allergy tests on Monday, and from there they want her to be a day patient to do food challenges on some of the lesser reactions to nuts

Prayers please for our church children as some return to Church for the first time since lockdown began.

KEEP IN TOUCH

These are links to our church facebook page and also the church website.

Facebook is the best place to keep in touch for all updates so please do join, even if it is just temporary.

Answered Prayers

Our children will be returning on Sunday for the , time since lockdown began. God is good

So many of our lovely congregation are now getting invites for their Covid vaccine, it fills me with joy to think that soon we will all be back together in God's house.

On Reflection

Isaiah 6:1-10

Each week for On reflection part of the Day by Day, I will contact Erica to ask what her sermon will be based on, then try to put some words on here that relate to this very subject. This week the sermon is based on How and who we worship.

Sometimes but not always, I will have an idea of what to put down immediately, this week is no exception.

Many of us have or have had in the past an idol whether it be a musician, pop star or actor/actress. My 2 idols were Audrey Hepburn and Snoopy.

We would have books or posters on these idols and if we heard they were appearing in our town, we would have gone out of our way to see them

Just this week both my youngest were discussing the same celebrity at different times. Anthony Joshua our very own Watford born heavyweight champion boxer of the world has been seen around the area by many

Darcey said "I'm so jealous a few boys from my year posted pictures on insta with AJ in his car"

Ollie said yesterday "I'm always in the wrong place at the wrong time. I seem to be missing AJ by minutes"

As Christians we have our very own idol, and this makes me question, how far out of our way would we go to meet Him,

Is He just our idol on a Sunday, or do we idolise Him throughout our daily life.

An idol is someone you aspire to be, whether it be looks, talents, gifts, fame or any otherwise.

Do we aspire to be like Jesus, because I am sure that through my journey as a Christian I have heard on many occasions to live your life as Jesus would have you do.

Being like Jesus is about doing all the right things. Jesus lived a perfect life, and His actions are worth replicating. For example, Jesus set us an inspiring example in prayer, forgiveness, care for the needy, etc. While being like Jesus does involve such behaviors, being like Jesus is not just about doing the right actions.

Are we worshipping the wrong idol?

Is Jesus just our Sunday idol?
