THIS WEEK
ON NAZFAM

I thought I would share this from nazfam, as it is quite fitting for this week.

Raheem Sterling - Manchester City

Silva's Manchester City teammate Raheem Sterling has been known to tweet Bible verses and statements like "Trust in Him" on Twitter, and has described in interviews how he prays before every match

So great to see so many young stars believing in God.

I'm sure God will be with them on Sunday, as we have learnt in our sermon today God is everywhere, even where we least expect it.

Like a football pitch.

Answered Prayers

Joan's sister Barbara is now home and is doing ok, another answer to prayers.

But do always keep them in your prayers.

On Reflection

Psalm 136

Most of us have experienced the joy of having a child.

Can you think back to that first time you saw him/her, that rush of love you felt. That you knew would never leave you.

For the first few months especially they put you through some pretty tough challenges, from having a jetlagged sleep pattern, pooping out of their nappy up the back and into their hair, and if you were lucky to have a child like Darcey, I would often find out what gastric reflux entailed when she upchucked in my hair.

They tear you house apart, break things, smell and lots more and yet you still love them. A love that cannot be described, but you know that you would lay your life down for that small person.

There is only one conclusion to this reflection, and that is.

The love you feel for your child regardless, unconditional is the exact same love that God feels for us.

No matter what we do He still loves us, He gave His only son for us.

Try this week to feel the love you have for your child is the love God feels for you also
